STUDENT HOME BUILDING PROJECT

Jason Fahrenkrog is pleased with himself for giving Max Glover a headache.

Max Glover attempts to get his extension cord out of a huge knot.

CONSTRUCTION FACTS

- 1st year project located next to Division Street in Davenport
- 8 North Scott students are involved
- 2 classes: first class 7:45 - 10:30 am
Second class 12:00 - 2:45
- All work is done by the students

Cory Conrad, Jevon Hamilton, Jason Draper, and Amos Vanlandschoot wait during the ribbon cutting ceremony.

Steve Gsell and Mickey Heidgerken relax before they "raise the roof."

Pat Reth gets ready to pound some nails.

Justin Clark demonstrates what a person's tonsils should look like.

Ted Bailey watches intently from the sidelines.

Grant Shipman tries to gain on the runner in front of him.

On senior night, Jay Bemrich prepares to walk the field with his parents.

Nick Hale and Scott Goettsch patrol the halls.

Jim Paysen and Robin Wiener stop by their locker between classes.

19 Robb Russman completes his assignment for the Lance.

Tracy Knapper is caught off guard.

Anne Hamilton discusses the day's assignment.

Jason Thornburg runs off the field after punting the ball.

Seth Porter reacts to the game situation.

Carrie Mohr participates in the FCA mini-retreat.

Mary Baustian, Katie Goodall, and Katie Clasen prepare for the rehearsal.

Beau Tooley watches the cross country meet.

Emily Greving dusts the shelves during the play.

Melissa Soenksen, Kari Stoltenberg, Deni DeLoe, and Tricia Millam watch for UFO's.

In my own words...

"I am at my house for my 18th birthday with two of my best friends, Jessica Meyer and Lindsey Peekenschneider. We are at my house in my hot tub just having fun. After we got out of the hot tub our skin was so raw and irritated that we could not stop itching. After a while our skin was red from itching because my brother put too many chlorine tablets in the hot tub before we got in. When we finally got out of the hot tub we went to find my brother because Jessica got so mad at him for putting too much chlorine in the hot tub. It was funny because my brother was constantly apologizing to the both of us for almost the rest of the night."

Dustin Kramer

season of broomball this November. We played at the Quad City Sports Center and our games were at 8:30 p.m. every Sunday night. The game of broomball is played just like ice hockey but instead of using a hockey stick we used a broom and instead of using skates we run in our shoes on the ice. We hit a big orange ball instead of a puck. Our team "DarkTown" had an extremely good season. We only lost two games. However we didn't do so well in the tournament games. To our surprise there was a great turn out of North Scott fans at our games."

"This is a picture of me and one of my fellow track partyers, Beth Montgomery. We were extremely pumped at the Bettendorf - North Scott

Homecoming game. This picture was actually posed because Larry Simon had a camera and Beth said, "Sarah, Larry has a camera, stick your tongue out." So I did. Kind of scary huh? I had made it my personal goal to get the whole band excited during the football games this year, with all of the other senior band members. I enjoyed marching band this year because I had the opportunity to write my own show with the help of Jessica Meyer and Lindsey Peekenschneider. We made our chart to the tune of the Muppet Show Theme. I had fun when I got the chance to conduct along with Beth. I will always remember the fun times of my marching career."

Sarah Noel

Jill Pearson is in "knee deep" trouble and needs help.

Katie Clasen and Grant Shipman are always willing to lend a "helping hand."

Sean Stender reacts to the scary scene in the movie.

Maybe Joe Hanssen spends a little too much time in the weighroom.

Nate Miller wonders why the referee did not call a foul.

Chris Blake participates in the chess tournament during DST.

What is your favorite (or least favorite) moment while at North Scott?

"The Spring Break canoe trip."

Adam Panther

"Having Mr. Norde as a student teacher."

Kevin Holdorf

"When I streaked across the football field."

Brian Stichter

"The huge food fight junior year."

Cory Conrad

"Homecoming night at Lance's."

Scott Keppy

"Getting caught trying to climb on top of Super Wash."

Drew Patterson

"Getting Josh Sarver on Homecoming court."

Matt Dengler

"Having the Junior camp out on my land without telling me."

Kim Carstensen

"Drawing Billy Ray Jr. with Adam Panther and Sean Stender in Study Hall."

Pat Reth

"Being hit in the head with a volleyball during a game."

Molly Kirby

"Seeing Pat Reth every single day!"

Eric Goettch

"Jaime - the foreign exchange student."

Abe Eystad

"Hiding girls in a closet at the state wrestling meet."

Kyle Billups

"Our first party at the gun range our sophomore year."

Casey Turner

"Having my friends buy a Firebird for my birthday."

Ted Bally

"Trashing Megan Hoffman's house during homecoming."

Wes Keppy

"Getting into fights at Broom ball."

Pat Judkins

In my own words...

"Melissa Green, Jason Less, Heidi Pohlman, Connor Haas, Connor's freshman date, Matt Reed, his girlfriend from West, Scott Donabauer, Jessie Ellis, and I all meet at Jason Less's house for homecoming 1999. We went to TGI Fridays to eat. It was a great meal. It also happened to be Heidi's birthday that night. Well, not really, but the waiters and waitresses sang to her anyway. Outside the restaurant there just happened to be a car from West there. The girls wrote all over it with lipstick.

The guys told them not to but Jessie wouldn't listen. I think all the fumes from her hair spray were going straight to her head. After the dance we went to Jeb Hubner's house, minus Jessie and Heidi. Overall I had a great night that I'll always remember."

"We went to Estes Park, Colorado last summer for the national Fellowship of Christian Athletes retreat. This particular picture was taken at the Denver Hotel. We are sitting at the bar where a scene from the movie Dumb and Dumber was filmed. The FCA retreat lasted for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan took us. At the retreat we had a routine that we followed each day. It was freezing cold most of the week that we were there but we still had a blast. Throughout the week we had model huddles to give us ideas to take back to our FCA and to teach us how to be leaders of this organization. I will never forget my trip to Colorado for FCA."

"This picture was taken last year over Spring Break. The band went to Florida for a competition. This trip was one of the most funniest and most tiring times of my life. We headed to MGM Studios to start our awesome trip. Stephanie Gray, Nate Mohr, Scott Donabauer, Jason Less, and I are all standing by Flick, from A Bug's Life. We didn't just go down and run around the whole time. We had very important things to get done. First, both bands were selected to play at the Magic Kingdom. We got to cut in line for some rides and be back stage to see what really happens at Disney. Then we went to a nearby high school and competed against schools from all over the United States. Symphonic Band received a Division I rating placing them second in their class. The trip was great."

In my own words...

"During Spring Break last year, the band of North Scott High School went on a trip. We drove for a day and a night to get to Disney World. We spent four days there and had the best time ever. In this picture Stephanie Grey, Jessie Ellis, Jami Bredow, Lauren Cole, Tahlia Beebe, and I are eating at Hard Rock Cafe in Universal Studios. We were all so happy! Jami and Tahlia had never been to Disney World before so Lauren and I were being huge dorks trying to show them around. I never want to forget this incredible trip. Not only because we placed second in the band competition but because we had such a blast. Even though we were all so tired the entire time I don't think any of us would give up these memories for anything.

"The Sound of Music was a very enjoyable period in my life. It was the first show I had ever done with Mrs. Jacobs as the director. Previously I had only done Children's Theater. It was during this show, I learned more about theater than any other experience.

The production of the show was filled with more laughs than you can imagine. During this show, I formed some very close friendships with many of the people in the cast. Many of them are people that I never would have talked to as much if I had not been in the show."

In my own words...

"This picture is me doing a burnout at High School Days in Cordova, on Sunday October 17th. I arrived at the dragway late, so I was in a hurry to get registered. The ladies in the trailer where giving me a hard time because I forgot my driver's license. I was very mad! So I got in my car and drove down to the pits without even paying to be a spectator. Then I went to find Eric Mundt and asked him to tell the ladies in the trailer he was racing. He did and got the tech papers without any trouble. So I went up to the staging lanes and had time to make two time trails. After that I participated in the burnout contest. I got to the second round but then had to leave."

"This picture was taken at Paige Epping's 16th Birthday. We camped out at Scott County Park. The weather was very nice it was about 70 degrees all night. After we set up our tents this picture was taken. It features Katie Brix, Sarah Tobin, Dani Mac, Tisha Weisbrook, Rachel Regan, Karen Meyer and Jesi Tague. (2-r) Katie

Yorde, Lisa Hildebrand, Sarah Anderson, Paige Epping, Anne Wylie, Jordan Olsen, Emily Pearson, Lisa Kirby, and I. We played lots of games, ate a lot of food and took a lot of pictures. We got so loud the park ranger had to come and tell us to be quiet or we were going to get kicked out of the park."

Sasha Faust '02

"This is one of my favorite pictures of me and my friends. We had a party at my house before the Lancer Basketball Invitational on February 12, 1999. We ate lots of food, took pictures, danced, and sang karaoke. We were the 1998-1999 Freshman team. In this picture there are six of the twelve of us. They are Alyssa Bobst, Kathy Wright, Sara Verhorevoort, Jordan Olsen, Rachel Regan and myself. We are a very close team and have a lot of fun together. We got 4th place in the invitational."

Things sure seem to be looking up for Sarah Anderson, Anne Wylie, Lisa Kirby, Jessi Schadt and Rachel Regan.

WHAT TEACHER DO YOU "FEAR" THE MOST?

"Mr. Conrad- he hits!!!" Mike Kirby

"Ms. Reedy. Well, grade-wise, anyway." Mike Farley

"None of them--they can't touch me!!!" Brad Kuhl

"Mr. Mohr because I'm always afraid he'll catch me without a pass." Lisa VanDenBerghe

"Where my boys at ?" asks Adam Nolan to Wes Larson.

After shaking their silver at the State Dance Team Competition, Jessi Tague and Sasha Faust take a relaxing break and smile.

In my own words...

"Last year my family went on a vacation to Florida. It was the best vacation I have ever went on. We spent 10 days in SUNNY Florida. We stayed on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico. In this picture I am playing volleyball with my brother.

While we were down there we went snorkeling, parasailing, and deep sea fishing. My favorite thing that we did in Florida was deep sea fishing. We went with a guided tour for 4 hours. We caught a total of 20 fish. Some of the fish were poisonous, like the eels my dad caught."

Craig Rehn '02

the mall. We went out to eat at Chi-Chi's. We went with some friends. Amanda and I had some kind of platter that had with a variety of food. Everyone else had spicy chicken fingers. After we ate we went to the dance and stood in line for pictures for about an hour. Then we went into the pit and I used up all my film on my friends. Then we left the dance and met up with Tony Vicary and Marcus Stichter. I had to be home at one o'clock."

Jennie Wamsley '02

"I remember when I went turkey hunting on my grandparent's farm last year with my two cousins. It was getting late in the season. I went out in the woods one evening next to the "camp site." I had my decoy set up and I was not calling very much. I wasn't seeing anything and all of a sudden I heard a hen behind me. So I very slowly looked back and saw a tom to my left then there was a deer behind him. The hen went down the hill to my right. I waited until the turkey went behind some brush then I raised my gun and shot, and he went down."

Ryan Mausser '02

"Can we come in?" asks Easton Armstrong and Wes Larson. Hey, wasn't there a warm apple pie cooling on that window sill?!?!

Nate Marple asks, "Is that your final answer?"

Lisa Hildebrand, Jessi Tague, Kristin Burmeister, Sasha Faust, Brooke Reth, Sarah Anderson, Rachel Regan, Emily Pearson, Hannah Hainline, Jordan Olsen and Karen Meyer huddle for a group picture.

Stephanie Broyles and Amanda Adkisson show that they truly are best friends.

DAILY LIFE

DAILY LIFE AT MUSIC REHEARSAL

Practice is an important ingredient in a musician's life. Without practice they are not able to perform their best. North Scott has many different opportunities for students to get involved. We have two bands, two jazz bands, three choirs, and a show choir. These groups practice every other day together and many hours at their home. If you are involved in the music programs at North Scott you know that the emphasis is on practicing.

Trumpeters Jeremiah Sheedy and John Wagoner prepare for their big debut.

Jon Irving breaks out to the tune of Sweet Home Alabama in the middle of rehearsal.

Cori Bell, Jackie Pierick, Jeni Wilford, and Lisa Hildebrand of women's chorale prepare for their concert.

The mighty trombone section proves they can't keep time.

DAILY LIFE OUTSIDE OF SCHOOL

We spend so much time at school that we do not realize we have outside lives. Spending time after school could be anything from hanging out with our friends or going to do many various things.

Students are always thrilled when they can spend some time outside of school because it seems that there is not enough time in a day to do it all.

Jason Fahrenkrog makes sure everything is running smoothly out at Glynn's Creek Golf Course.

Josh Foust sneaks on a float with his friends during the parade. Josh enjoys soccer during his time away from school.

Lisa Van Den Berghe spends a lot of her free time involved with F.F.A.

Grant Shipman and Caryn Rouse exchange flowers during their free time.

DAILY LIFE
TEACHERS HELPING STUDENTS
STUDENTS WRITE ABOUT THEIR FAVORITE TEACHER

"I will remember Mr. Ryan.
He was always a really funny teacher. He made class really easy."

Bryan Foit '02

"I really like Mrs. Downs because she was a really nice teacher."

Ryan Mausser '02

"Mr. Denner is the really coolest teacher, because he makes you laugh and helps you out."

Sarah Ingle '02

Miss Lori Osterberg monitors the progress of Heidi Van Den Berghe and is ready to offer her support.

Mr. Brian Barquist is caught trying to strangle J.J. Suiter.

Devin Peterson tries to get out of another class by acting sick.

Mr. Deac Ryan stops to explain to Christine Smet how to apply the business law to real life situations.

DAILY LIFE

IN THE WEIGHTROOM

"Lift! Come on you can do it!" Words of encouragement shouted to a lifter in the weight room.

When you first walk into the weight room you are surrounded by the smell of hard work, sweat, and tears. This is where athletes and the physically fit work their hardest and achieve their goals.

Not only do they get results, but this is where some of the students make friends that will last for a lifetime.

Vanessa Bell, Jimmy Christiansen, Adrienne Halke, and Kyle Billups lift during Strength and Conditioning class.

Mr. Buttjer shows Matt Talbot how to pump iron.

"To the weightroom," proclaims Clint Hardesty, Jesse Lott, Lyle Friedrichs, and Caleb Shreves.

"I'm not that strong, but give me some credit here," exclaims Brian Linnenbrink to Josh Wall.

DAILY LIFE IN THE HALLS

Students dwelling in the hall is typical to see after the bell. Here are some excuses for being late:

"I couldn't find it."

Victor Wilcox '01

"I got lost in Wal-Mart."

Katie Brix '02

"In a garbage can."

Larry Simon '02

"I was mooning someone."

Grant Shipman '00

"A fight in C-hall."

Lindsey Peek '00

"My locker handle fell off."

Mary Dix '01

Brian Stichter makes an appointment for a diaper fitting.

Carrie Mohr, Jerry Paulson, Katie Clasen, Beth Montgomery, and Casey Haas complete a project for class while relaxing in the hallway.

Nicole Oster and Erin Doyle stop at their locker before heading out for work and Multi-Occ.

DAILY LIFE IN THE COMMONS

"Excuse me, but may I please have a pass?" This phrase is uttered hundreds of times throughout the building during each day. Some ask for passes to the bathroom, the nurse, or to their "lockers." But where do they really go? The commons!!! But the real question is why does everyone want to go there?

"To mingle with the common folks." Sarah Noel '00

"To party with the lunch-ladies Caleb Shreves '01

"To get food and drink." Emily Gayman '00

Brandon Allen enjoys a break from class and looks around the commons during his study hall.

Adam Moreland and Clint Heitz knows the yearbook photographer and knows they will get their picture in the Shield.

Jeff Johnson tries to get some studying done while not everyone in the commons is doing work.

DAILY LIFE
WITH FRIENDS

Jessie Ellis apologizes to Chris Green after punching him in the arm .

John Low and Mark Mumm watch the football game along the fence line.

Jon Irving, Josh Hensel, Victor Wilcox, and Heath Dierks get a little crazy during the homecoming pep aud.

Shawn Simpson sits in the corner of the stadium surrounded by Dawn Marple and Stacey Hart .

DAILY LIFE WITH FRIENDS

While in high school friends are a necessity. They are always there when you think that no one else is. They continually stand by each other through thick and through thin. They are never afraid to tell you when you are in the wrong.

The friends you make in high school will be in your hearts for the rest of your lives.

Jana Hemphill, Andrea Herron, and Mike Schafer chill out in the commons.

Jess Meyer, Kevin Berg, and Sarah Noel are crowned royalty for the day.

While sitting in the commons, Amanda Opolka and Kim Bolte realize the camera is focused on them.

DAILY LIFE
ATHLETIC PRACTICE
AFTER SCHOOL

It takes hard work, dedication, and the love of the game. All the athletes have these qualities and much more. Athletes work for long hours before and after school trying to improve. Through sports athletes can make friends that will last a lifetime.

Jeremy Bucklaw and Adam Baetke take advantage of a break during football practice and get a drink of water.

Joe DeLuca gets a little upset at baseball practice.

Wes Keppy reacts to the directions from the coach.

Daily Life in the Classroom

People can't help but wonder what happens in each class for all 84 minutes. Well, it depends on the teacher. Some of the teachers lecture the whole time, while others lecture half the time and let students work the rest of the time.

If someone were to walk into a science class, they may find the class doing an experiment, or if someone were to walk into a creative writing class, you may hear some stories being read, or if someone wandered into The Pit, they might find the PE classes playing volleyball or basketball. There are a lot of different things that go on in the classrooms throughout the day.

Brad Bowers relaxes during history class.

Larry Simon grimaces after getting punched in the shoulder.

Domina DiQuarto gets leverage on her ceramics project.

Carrie Evins reads a play in English class.

Daily Life
in the Classroom

During his study hall, Alan Papendorf relaxes in the library and catches up on the latest magazine story.

DAILY LIFE AT WORK

Students know to go out and have fun you need money. To get money you can run to your parents or get an after school job. This is a painful decision. If you get a job you will need to give up time needed for homework, and time with your friends. Is this worth $5.15 an hour? Many students say yes and they put on their Hy-Vee smock, Subway cap, and Village Inn shirt.

Chris Massie really enjoys to vacuum the floors at True Value in his free time.

Kara Jungblut shreds confidential papers at the Scott County Library.

Stefanie Levien is in control at Fast Stop.

Sarah Tobin tries to stay awake on the job at True Value.

DAILY LIFE IN THE CAFETERIA

Welcome to the land of lunch; population as many people as possible. Each lunch is thirty minutes; this is when you get to talk to friends and frolic about while eating our favorite foods.

Well, what is our favorite school food?

"Chicken nuggets"

Jim Paysen '00

"French fries"

Ashley Knutson '03

"Bagels with cream cheese"

Brandy Havenhill '03

Brant Scheckel shows Kyle Schroeder, Liz Volrath, Maggie Davis, and Kevin Olson that milk does a body good.

Cory Hawk piles on the food in the lunch line.

J. W. Staver and Trek Langenhan enjoy their lunch and free time between classes.

Scott Goettsch spends another lunch period in line for a sandwich.

Was the media coverage of the death of John F. Kennedy Jr. excessive or appropriate?

64% Excessive

36% Appropriate

The dreadful events that plagued the life of John F. Kennedy Jr. painted an eerie backdrop for the tragic plane crash that killed him, his wife, Carolyn Bessette Kennedy, and her sister, Lauren Bessette. The bodies of the three victims were recovered by divers in the Atlantic about seven miles off of Martha's Vineyard, where the Piper Saratoga II Kennedy was piloting crashed five days before. In the end, the nation and the world was left to mourn the loss of a man they came to know as a little boy, saluting the casket of his assassinated father, a boy who grew up to inherit the bittersweet Kennedy legacy.

The San Antonio Spurs held off the New York Knicks in June to win the team's first-ever NBA championship. The Spurs, led by David Robinson and Tim Duncan, clinched all four playoff series games on the road, completing the playoffs with a 15-2 record. The team also set an NBA single-season record with 12 consecutive victories in the postseason.

Robert Downey Jr., the one-time Oscar nominee and star of such films as "Natural Born Killers" and "Less Than Zero," was sentenced in August to three years in prison for violating his probation on drugs and weapons charges. The 34-year-old actor had made several attempts at rehabilitation prior to his latest arrest, and had spent more than six months behind bars.

A controversial goal in the third overtime lifted the Dallas Stars to victory over the Buffalo Sabres in Game 6 of the Stanley Cup Finals in June. On the winning goal, Dallas' Brett Hull took two whacks at the puck and finally knocked it past the Sabres' fallen goalie. After further review, the shot was ruled fair to give Dallas its first championship in franchise history.

MILLENNIUM XI CENTURY

The first century of the second millennium began with Leif Eriksson sailing west to become the first European in the New World. Eriksson and 35 other men crossed the Atlantic from Greenland to a place they called Vinland near what is now Newfoundland. The year was 1000 A.D.

A new measure of literary brilliance was discovered in 1008, when Japan's Lady Murasaki Shikibu wrote what is believed to be the first true novel, "The Tale of Genji." The colorful story of the life and loves of Prince Genji is considered a masterpiece and the pinnacle of Japanese literature.

Canute of Denmark became the king of England in 1016, following the death of his father who had conquered the country three years before. While presiding over a period of prosperity in England, Canute the Great also

The low-budget horror documentary, "The Blair Witch Project," came out of nowhere, earning more than $150 million and competing with major studio releases, such as "The Sixth Sense," in the summer box office race. Having been made for less than $35,000, the movie beat the odds to become the most profitable motion picture of all time.

A deadly earthquake measuring 7.6 on the Richter scale rocked western Turkey in August. By far the year's most catastrophic, the earthquake killed more than 17,000 people. Several serious aftershocks followed the main earthquake, destroying thousands of buildings and leaving hundreds of thousands of people homeless and living in tent cities.

The U.S. women's soccer team battled for 120 minutes to a scoreless tie before defeating China, 5-4, on penalty kicks in the World Cup Final. The exciting win captured the hearts of America, resulting in hero status for the team's 20 members and a shot in the arm for women's sports overall. Additionally, the World Cup championship was credited for boosting soccer's marginal stature in the United States.

suppressed uprisings in Denmark and defeated Norway. He died in 1035 as king of all three countries and a highly respected power in European politics.

William, duke of Normandy, a.k.a William the Conqueror, led a triumphant charge over Harold, earl of Wessex, in the Battle of Hastings in 1066. At issue was the throne of England, which had been promised to William, but given to Harold. His army no match for the Normans, Harold was finally slain and William won the English crown.

Pope Urban II launched a crusade in 1095 to reclaim the Holy Land from the Turks. After several waves of battle, Christian soldiers eventually took Jerusalem in 1099. The triumph was short-lived and the Crusades continued for another 200 years.

June 1 — American Airlines Flight 1420 carrying 145 passengers skidded off a runway, broke apart and burst into flames during an emergency landing at a Little Rock, Ark., airport. Eleven people were killed and at least 83 others were injured in the crash, which occurred during a gusty hail storm. Winds of 90 mph caused the aircraft to slam into a steel light pole, split into pieces and catch fire, coming to a rest at the edge of the Arkansas River.

June 7 — The WNBA announced its selection of Indiana, Miami, Portland, Ore., and Seattle as expansion franchises to begin play in the 2000 season. The additions brought the two-year-old women's basketball league to 16 teams. Eight teams were part of the WNBA when play began in 1997 with franchises in Charlotte, Cleveland, Houston, New York, Los Angeles, Phoenix, Sacramento and Utah. Teams were added in Detroit and Washington before the 1998 season, and in 1999, Minnesota and Orlando joined the league.

June 15 — Rosa Parks, 86, the black woman whose refusal to give up her bus seat to a white man made her a symbol for civil rights, received the Congressional Gold Medal, the highest honor bestowed by the U.S. Congress, during a ceremony in the Capitol Rotunda. She was lauded by President Clinton and House and Senate leaders. As a recipient of the award, Parks was in elite company with people like Nelson Mandela and Mother Teresa having been honored before her.

June 29 — Sportscaster Marv Albert was rehired by NBC as one of the announcers on the network's NBA crew. The move came two years after he was fired in a lurid sex scandal, which resulted in a guilty plea for sexual assault of a woman in a Virginia hotel room. In December, it was announced that Albert would return next fall to his former position as NBC's lead basketball announcer.

Millions gathered all over Europe and gazed curiously skyward to see the moon smother the light of the sun as the last total solar eclipse of the millennium swept across the continent in August. The eclipse, moving at a speed of 1,500 m.p.h., cast darkness on the land for about two minutes. It will be 82 years before Europeans see another solar eclipse.

Maurice Greene of the United States made a last-minute decision to run the 100 meters in an Athens, Greece, invitational in June. When it was over, he had run the fastest time in history. Greene finished the 100 meters with a time of 9.79, a full five-hundredths of a second faster than the record set by Donovan Bailey of Canada at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics.

Prince Edward, the youngest child of Queen Elizabeth, and publicist Sophie Rhys-Jones were married in a modest ceremony at St. George's Chapel inside Windsor Castle in June. The prince chose to forgo the royal pageantry that had accompanied the weddings of his siblings, most notably Prince Charles, all of which ended in divorce.

The advent of revolutionizing weaponry in the early 12th Century, such as crude cannons, paper grenades and iron bombs, changed the way battles were fought. Gunpowder allowed weapons to be designed for tactical use and eventually led to standing armies and centralized power.

In 1117, the first known reference to the nautical compass was made in a book by Chinese scholar Zhu Yu. Although the first European mention of the compass came more than 70 years later, venturesome Western sailors used it to sail west and eventually circumnavigate the globe.

Some 62 years after the first modern university — the University of Bologna — was founded in Bologna, Italy, the university concept finally caught on. The University of Paris, founded in 1150, served as a model for the creation of University of Oxford in 1187, each boasting faculties in theology, law, medicine and liberal arts.

July 23 — The third time was not a charm for the Woodstock rock festival, when the third such event in 30 years endured riot-like conditions. Riled-up rock fans went on a rampage toward the end of the weekend event, starting fires and trashing the Rome, N.Y., concert site. Surprisingly, no one was seriously injured and ultimately the fans supported participating bands such as Kid Rock, Rage Against the Machine and the Dave Matthews Band.

August 3 — Talk, the much-ballyhooed new magazine from former New Yorker Editor Tina Brown, hit newsstands. The first issue featured a cover story on Hillary Rodham Clinton, talking candidly about the indiscretions of her husband, Bill, and her future in politics. In a sly political move, New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani, Hillary's likely opponent in the 2000 Senate race, rejected the original site for the magazine's launch party, which eventually took place at the Statue of Liberty.

August 22 — Martin Lawrence was hospitalized and subsequently fell into a coma after collapsing from heat stroke a month before the scheduled opening of his new movie, "Blue Streak." It was later reported that Lawrence had been jogging in heavy clothing with temperatures soaring into the 90s. The comic actor's publicist insisted it was all part of Lawrence's normal workout routine. Lawrence completely recovered after about three weeks in the hospital and was released just in time for the premiere.

August 31 — The final Lilith Fair gig was performed in Edmonton, Alberta, culminating the fourth summer for the touring music festival that broke new ground for female musicians. Joining founder Sarah McLachlan on stage for the final round of concerts were Sheryl Crow, Dixie Chicks, Indigo Girls, Lisa Loeb and a host of others.

All 217 passengers on EgyptAir Flight 990 were killed when the Boeing 767 crashed into the Atlantic off the Massachusetts coast. As search crews recovered pieces of the airliner from the ocean floor, speculation mounted that relief pilot Gamil al-Batouty intentionally crashed the plane. Information collected from the flight data recorder did reveal that al-Batouty turned off the engines and deployed the speed brakes. Although U.S. investigators suspected that al-Batouty had a death wish, no suicide note or evidence of terrorism emerged.

ABC's surprise hit "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire" brought television full-circle from its infancy, when prime-time game shows were a mainstay. Hosted by TV's crafty quipster, Regis Philbin, the show became an instant phenomenon and gave ABC its first sweeps win in five years. The other major networks quickly followed suit with their own quiz-show clones, such as FOX's "Greed" and "Twenty One" on NBC.

French explorer Bernard Buigues led an international expedition into a remote area of Siberia in October to excavate a 23,000-year-old woolly mammoth, its body remarkably preserved in the permafrost. Named "Jarkov" for the nomadic family that discovered it, the ancient mammoth was airlifted to special cold-storage caverns. There, scientists began studying the creature and the soil around it for clues about the environment and what might have caused the species to become extinct.

September 15 — A man spouting anti-Baptist rhetoric burst into the Wedgwood Baptist Church in Forth Worth, Texas, and opened fire, killing seven people before sitting in a pew and turning the gun on himself. Seven others were wounded, three of them seriously, in the shooting rampage, which happened during a service for teenagers. More than 150 people were in attendance. The shooting was one of several that occurred during the year, an ominous trend that sparked a nationwide debate on gun control.

September 25 — Federal health experts announced that the deaths of three people in New York City, originally attributed to mosquito-borne St. Louis encephalitis, were actually caused by a rare bird virus, not previously seen in the Western Hemisphere. Officials said the fatalities, in addition to more than 100 cases of illness, had been reclassified and were now being linked to a virus called the West Nile fever-like virus. Since the virus was usually found in Africa, they could not explain how it had traveled to New York.

September 27 — A sellout crowd of nostalgic Detroit baseball fans joined Hall of Fame players and the ghosts of past glory to say farewell to Tiger Stadium after 88 seasons. The American League team would be moving to the $290 million Comerica Park about a mile away. Tiger Stadium, home of some of the greatest players in baseball history, including Ty Cobb, Hank Greenberg and Al Kaline, opened April 20, 1912, the same day as Fenway Park in Boston, which would now be the league's oldest stadium.

October 4 — Two commuter trains smashed into each other during morning rush hour in central London and burst into flames, killing more than 70 people and sending another 150 people to area hospitals. Considered one of the country's worst train crashes in half a century, investigators eventually determined that the crash was caused by one of the trains passing a red signal.

October 5 — MCI WorldCom Inc., the country's second-largest long-distance company, announced it would purchase Sprint Corp., the No. 3 carrier, in a deal valued at $129 billion. The deal would be the biggest corporate takeover in history. The combined company, to be called WorldCom, would make up about 30 percent of the $90 billion U.S. long-distance market as a result of the merger. A short time later, the proposed merger came under criticism in the United States because of concern over its impact on the long-distance telephone and Internet access markets. Nearly six months passed without resolution and the merger remained on hold.

October 6 — Houston won the rights to the NFL's 32nd franchise, beating out Los Angeles and its distinction as the second-largest TV market in the nation. Houston businessman Bob McNair paid $700 million for the expansion franchise, the highest price ever for a sports team in the United States. NFL owners approved the measure, returning an NFL team to Houston just three years after the Oilers left for Tennessee. As part of the expansion, which will begin with the 2001 season, owners also voted to realign the league.

October 15 — A 29-year-old tomcat named Spike was crowned the world's oldest living cat, having reached a feline age equivalent to 203 human years. Owner Mo Elkington of London, England, insisted that the 10-pound puss has lived so long because she feeds him the "healing" aloe vera plant. Spike was officially entered in the Guinness Book of World Records as the oldest living cat. The world's longest-living cat died in 1998 after having lived 34 years, two months, and four hours.

October 27 — The famous form-fitting, flesh-toned dress Marilyn Monroe donned to sing "Happy Birthday, Mr. President" to President John F. Although Giuliani had not officially entered the race, rumors to that effect had been circulating for nearly 18 months. Polls showed Giuliani with a slight overall lead over Clinton, who was being criticized for the short term of her residency in the Empire State. Political analysts expected the Clinton/Giuliani Senate race to be the most expensive in the nation's history, and possibly the most vicious.

HBO's new smash hit, "The Sopranos," had a big night at the 57th Annual Golden Globe Awards in January. The show, which follows the life and times of a New Jersey mob family, earned four Golden Globes for its first season on the air. James Gandolfini and Edie Falco won trophies for best actor and best actress in a drama series, while Nancy Marchand won for best supporting actress. "The Sopranos" also won the Golden Globe for best drama series.

January 18 — "Spin City" star Michael J. Fox announced he would leave the highly rated series, but not show business, to better concentrate on his fight against Parkinson's disease. Fox, who also co-produced the show, broke seven years of silence last year when he revealed he was afflicted with the degenerative neurological disorder. Fox said he would leave the show at the end of the season. In February, ABC came to terms with Charlie Sheen to replace Fox as deputy mayor and renewed the show's contract through 2001.

January 19 — The Washington Wizards announced the hiring of retired NBA legend Michael Jordan as the team's president of basketball operations, and that he would also become a part-owner. The announcement came almost a year to the date of his retirement from the Chicago Bulls last January. Jordan, 36, led the Bulls to six NBA championships, won five League MVP awards and 10 scoring titles during his incomparable career. The Wizards organization had not experienced a lot of success for more than two decades and Jordan's powerful persona and winner's attitude was strategically meant to bring positive attention to the franchise.

January 19 — A raging fire broke out in a Seton Hall University dormitory as hundreds of students slept, killing three and injuring 58. One student leapt from a window, while others fled into the bitter cold in only their pajamas. The blaze struck Boland Hall, a six-story dorm, at about 4:30 a.m., likely starting in a third-floor lounge. The cause had not been determined. It was later reported that because of a series of false alarms the previous semester, many of the more than 600 students in the building at the time of the fire ignored the fire alarm, thinking it was another prank.

The land deal was a steal for Minuit's group, considering that at the end of the 20th Century Manhattan was estimated to be worth $143 billion.

Carlos Santana, the 52-year-old singer/guitarist who played at the original Woodstock in 1969, ruled the 42nd Annual Grammy Awards in February. The rock legend took home eight Grammys for his 1999 album, "Supernatural," including one for best rock album and two for the single "Smooth" featuring Matchbox 20's Rob Thomas. Santana's eight Grammys were the most won by a single performer in the history of the awards, tying the record set by Michael Jackson in 1983. Joining Santana as multiple Grammy winners were the Dixie Chicks and Sting, both winning two awards each. The Dixie Chicks' "Fly" was named best country album, while Sting's "Brand New Day" earned the Grammy for best pop album.

Vice President Al Gore and former New Jersey Sen. Bill Bradley had the luxury of only worrying about each other as Election 2000 heated up with the primaries in February. Polls in the head-to-head race between the two Democratic presidential hopefuls showed Gore with a commanding 64 percent to 26 percent lead over Bradley. Overall, Gore was behind in the polls against Texas Gov. George W. Bush, the leading Republican candidate, with Bush holding a 50 percent to 46 percent lead. History was also working against the vice president, considering only four sitting vice presidents — John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Martin Van Buren and George Bush — had ever been elected directly to the presidency.

Revolution characterized the times in the 18th Century with both North America and France fighting in the name of liberty. In April 1775, British regulars engaged militia at Lexington and Concord, Mass., to set off the American Revolution. After seven years of war, the crown was defeated and American freedom was won.

France was ripe for revolution in 1789, the country bankrupt from backing the American Revolution, its citizens facing starvation. King Louis XVI and his queen, Marie Antoinette, James Watt's invention of the single-action steam engine in 1769 proved to be the key event in another revolution - the Industrial Revolution. Further refinements by Watt and his partners between 1775 and 1800 resulted in the rotary-action engine. These developments single-handedly revolutionized industry and sparked increased productivity.

David Letterman returned to his late-night talk show five weeks after having heart surgery in January. Taking it slow at first, the 52-year-old host mixed in his own appearances with guest hosts as he continued to recover. Letterman underwent an emergency quintuple bypass operation after a test revealed a blocked artery. CBS received a substantial boost in ratings as a result of Letterman's quick return, which happened in the midst of February sweeps.

Winston Cup driver Dale Jarrett captured his third Daytona 500 victory in eight years, matching Bobby Allison's total and leaving him behind only Richard Petty and Cale Yarborough for all-time wins in NASCAR's biggest race. Jarrett led 89 of the 200 laps and passed Johnny Benson four laps from the end, taking advantage of two late cautions. Dominant during the week leading up to the 500, Jarrett easily won the pole position in time trials and dominated the field in a 25-lap race for last year's top qualifiers.

January 21 — A cyber-confessional was launched allowing sinners to repent by typing transgressions into a space provided in order to make peace with God. Operated by London-based Premier Christian Radio, the web site featured passages from the Bible, inspirational poems and prayers set against a backdrop of blue sky, clouds, sunflowers and leaves. Visitors to www.theconfessor.co.uk were assured that whatever sin they typed in would be erased when the confession was over. The web site made no demands for penance. In a public statement, the Roman Catholic Church condemned the idea.

January 31 — Commissioner Bud Selig levied a 73-day suspension and $20,000 fine against Atlanta Braves pitcher John Rocker for the racist and homophobic remarks he made in a Sports Illustrated article. The suspension was to start at the beginning of spring training and extend through the first 28 days of the season. Selig also ordered the 25-year-old relief pitcher to enroll in sensitivity classes and banned him from even being present during spring training. Rocker and the Players Association began an appeal in February to overturn the decision. Rocker publicly apologized for the comments, but said he believed the penalty was excessive and hoped on appeal it would be overturned or at least reduced significantly.

February 3 — The World Wrestling Federation announced it would form a professional football league with plans to begin play in February 2001. The surprising St. Louis Rams shocked the world first with a 13-3 season and then by rolling to the team's first world championship with a 23-16 win over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV in January. The Rams' success had a great deal to do with their explosive offense, which was led by first-year quarterback Kurt Warner. A former star for the Iowa Barnstormers in the upstart Arena Football League, Warner took full advantage of his break in the NFL en route to earning League MVP and Super Bowl MVP honors. Notable was the fact that just two years before Warner's storybook season he was out of football and stocking shelves at a grocery store in Iowa.

February 11 — In a twist on TV's "Who Wants to Marry a Multimillionaire" special, twice-divorced Tom Arnold, who used to be married to Roseanne, went online in February to find a bride. On his web site, www.marrytom.com, Arnold announced he was looking for an attractive single woman of child-bearing age, who was good with children and self-confident enough to wear a bathing suit on vacation. The web site also featured biographical information on the 40-year-old actor, who had appeared in 26 movies, including the Arnold Schwarzenegger blockbuster "True Lies" and the Hugh Grant comedy "Nine Months." Applicants were asked to write a short essay, and also to upload a recent photo. In its first two weeks, the site received more than 75,000 responses.

February 15 — Women's groups and social critics were infuriated over the FOX television network's show, "Who Wants to Marry a Multimillionaire," which featured a millionaire selecting a bride from a group of women paraded before him in swimsuits and wedding gowns. However, criticism was the least of worries for creators of the show. Shortly after the broadcast, it was learned that the groom had been under a restraining order in 1991 for allegedly hitting and threatening to kill his ex-fiancee. Officials said that a background check had not revealed information to that effect. FOX subsequently canceled a planned rerun of the show and the bride announced she would be seeking an annulment.

February 20 — An avalanche hit Mount Washington, New England's highest peak, sweeping two skiers down the mountain to their deaths. The accident was said to have occurred due to wind gusts in excess of 60 mph and visibility of only one-sixteenth of a mile from blowing snow and freezing fog. The 6,288-foot mountain was the site of 231 mph winds on April 12, 1934. It was later reported that the two victims failed to check conditions on the mountain that day and, if they had, would have been told to stay away.

The first manned flight of a heavier-than-air craft by the Wright brothers in 1903 was a monumental benchmark, achieving one of humanity's wildest dreams. On a pleasant December day, Orville Wright took to the sky for 12 seconds over the sand dunes of Kitty Hawk, N.C., in an airplane he designed with his brother, Wilbur. Like kids with a new toy, the two brothers, bicycle mechanics by trade, took turns flying the craft made of wood, wire and cloth, at one point keeping it aloft for 59 seconds. The Wright brothers' craft, which they called the Flyer, made what was once considered impossible possible and opened the heavens for the future advancement of flight. Those advancements happened very quickly with nearly all the elements of the modern airplane in place a mere 15 years after Orville and Wilbur's historic day at Kitty Hawk.

World War I, also called the Great War, began in 1914 when a Serbian nationalist assassinated Archduke Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne. Austria-Hungary immediately declared war on Serbia, which prompted other declarations of war, ultimately leading to every major power in Europe getting involved. On one side were the Allies — chiefly France, Britain, Russia, and the U.S. — and on the other were the Central Powers made up of Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey. The war, considered one of the bloodiest in history, ended with the signing of the armistice in 1918. In the end, 10 million were dead and 20 million wounded. This unprecedented bloodshed contributed to a general loathing against war, leading many to support multinational disarmament pacts and the newly formed League of Nations.

Einstein. Freud. Picasso. Three fascinating men who left an indelible mark on the 20th Century. Albert Einstein revolutionized the theory of light, greatly advanced physics and scientific inquiry, and changed forever man's view of the universe. Sigmund Freud developed free association, broadened our view of human nature and sexuality and accelerated the age of self-examination. Pablo Picasso helped create Cubism, pioneered innovations in sculpture and lithography and experimented with new media. All three captivated imaginations around the world with their magnificent intelligence and compelling personalities.

The stock market crash in 1929 was an eerie harbinger of the Great Depression, which hung like a black cloud over the 1930s. Between Sept. 3 and Oct. 29, the Dow lost 120 points or nearly one third. That final day, dubbed "Black Tuesday" in the press, wiped out everyone as stock markets all over Europe reacted to the sell off. And, when it seemed like it couldn't get any worse, it did. On Nov. 13, the Dow closed at 199. The New York Stock Exchange fell from $80 billion to $50 billion between Sept. 3 and Nov. 13. The damage was done and the Great Depression began.

The horrific actions of Germany's Adolf Hitler and his Nazi regime against the Jews of Europe, coupled with similar totalitarian regimes in Japan and Italy, launched the Second World War in 1939. With the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor in 1941, the U.S. joined Great Britain and the Allied Forces to fight the aggression of the Axis powers. Decisive victories by the Allies led to Italy's surrender in 1943. Germany surrendered unconditionally in 1945, when Hitler committed suicide and the German resistance collapsed. Later that year, with U.S. troops poised to invade Japan's home islands, President Harry Truman ordered the dropping of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Japan quickly announced its surrender, thereby bringing to an end the costliest war in history.

Racial unrest simmered to a boil in 1955 with two key events sparking one of the greatest civil rights movements in history. The first involved a young black girl named Linda Brown, who questioned her inability to attend the school nearest her home. Brown v. the Board of Education of Topeka eventually resulted in a Supreme Court decision banning segregation in public schools and opening the door to equal access to education for blacks in America. That was just the beginning. A short time after the Brown decision, Rosa Parks, a 42-year-old black woman, refused to give up her seat to a white passenger on a bus in Montgomery, Ala., and was arrested. Martin Luther King Jr. got involved at that point and carried the torch for his people until he was assassinated 13 years later.

The aspirations of a young leader and a supporting nation came to an abrupt halt on Nov. 22, 1963, when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated by rifle fire while being driven in an open car through the streets of Dallas. JFK's assassination shocked a nation and profoundly changed the way people viewed the world. At 46, Kennedy became the fourth president to be assassinated and the eighth to die in office. The alleged assassin, 24-year-old Lee Harvey Oswald, was shot and killed by nightclub owner Jack Ruby two days later, leaving behind only suspicions of what his motives were and whether or not he was the lone gunman. Although the Warren Commission determined Oswald probably acted alone, the House Select Committee on Assassinations concluded in 1979 that a conspiracy was likely and that it may have involved organized crime. These differing opinions served to bolster the black cloud of controversy that has continued to surround the Kennedy assassination.

The first U.S. troops were committed to Vietnam in 1961 by President John F. Kennedy at the request of South Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem. Their mission was to help fight North Vietnamese communists controlled by Ho Chi Minh and southern rebels of the Viet Cong. The number of troops committed was minimal at first, and the American people accepted the action, believing it was necessary to halt the spread of communism. By 1968, U.S. troop build-up in Vietnam would reach its peak of 549,000 troops. Although there had been notable anti-war sentiment from the beginning, opposition eventually grew to a two to one margin. By 1973, when the war ended and U.S. troops returned home, two to three million Vietnamese and 58,000 Americans had been killed.

What was once thought to be impossible became a reality in 1969, when Apollo 11 astronauts set foot on the moon. Those historic steps were taken by Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Neil A. Armstrong, who descended to the moon's surface and landed their lunar module in the Sea of Tranquility. Armstrong stepped first and addressed the world with what has become one of the best-known phrases of modern times: "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." It was also a giant leap ahead for Americans in the space race with Russia. Six additional Apollo missions were made before the end of the program in December 1972 and, with the exception of Apollo 13, all landed successfully on the lunar surface.

The explosion of the space shuttle Challenger in 1986, resulting in the deaths of all seven astronauts aboard, horrified the nation and the world and dealt a severe blow to NASA's fledgling shuttle program. Challenger exploded 73 seconds after liftoff from Kennedy Space Center in Florida, as millions watched on television. A presidential panel determined that the fatal flaw was not in Challenger, but rather a faulty sealant ring in one of two 149-foot-tall solid rocket boosters. Dead as a result of the worst disaster in the history of space exploration was Christa McAuliffe, who was to be the first teacher and private citizen in space, and crew members Frank Scobee, Michael Smith, Judith Resnik, Ellison S. Onizuka, Ronald McNair and Gregory Jarvis. Two years passed before another shuttle was launched into space.
